LOCAL

Beat it, beat it, little car,
How I wonder what you are,
Climbing all the hills on high,
Passing all the others by.
As it passed the first man cussed,
While the second merely fussed.
But the last man said, they say,
It won't stop, it's a "Chevrolet."

Call 39 for jitney service.
Use White Rose Gasoline and National Carbonless Motor Oil. For sale by C. W. Pracht & Sons.
A $2.00 Maxim hot water bottle for $1.50 for one week only at Coppedge Drug Company's.

Remember we will meet all prices.
Hair cut, 25c; shave 10c. For sale by Naylor's Barber shop, 10.
Mr. C. E. Bruce has held his residence on Park avenue to Mr. Joe R. Taylor, who will move into it soon.

You can now buy the big, roomy, 35 horse power Overland, with electric lights and starter, fully equipped, for $995 f. o. b. Toledo, Ohio.

Notice—Hunting on our lands is positively forbidden, a violation of which will be prosecuted. Aaron Stenberger, R. W. Cox, E. L. Allen, Mrs. Margaret Cox.

Wanted—A copy of a book, written years ago by Col. J. S. Williams, entitled, "Old Times in West Tennessee." Address Gerald R. Mann, care O. O. Scoggin & Co., Little Rock, Ark.

The Overland Co. did the largest business last year with the exception of the "Peace Car," and they are preparing for the greatest business this year they have ever done. See R. N. Bond, he has something new to tell you.

At 12 o'clock Monday night the residence on Franklin street, occupied by Will Richards and owned by Mrs. W. T. Bullfinch was totally destroyed by fire. All the furniture and household goods were entirely destroyed. The building was partially covered by insurance. It is thought the fire originated from a defective flue.

Mrs. Sue E. Russell, aged 70 years, 5 months and 27 days, died at her home on West Main street Monday, January 10th, at 6:30 p. m. She is survived by two children, one son and one daughter, and two sisters, Mrs. Mittle Jackson and Mrs. Collier. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. A. C. Bell. Interment in Oakwood cemetery.

James Bond & Co. have secured the agency for the Dixie Gem coal, the good burning coal, medium size and nice to handle. This is high grade coal, but in order to get it on the market we are going to sell it for $3.75, the same as the cheaper coal. If you want this coal, don't fail to call for the Dixie Gem. We handle other kinds of cheaper coal, Kentucky lump, egg, and put on hand at all times. We also handle the Force Special blacksmith coal. Remember the name, Dixie Gem, the best.

Dr. A. W. Livingston owns an Overland car, Model 83. This is what he has to say about it: "It is a wonderful car, has an abundance of power, very easy to operate, has good style, starting and lighting system gives no trouble, and above all, the upkeep has been nothing. I purchased this car from R. N. Bond in July, and have driven it to Arkansas, Open Lake, and taken a number of long trips in it and it hasn't cost me one cent for repairs. Only expense has been gasoline and oil, which have been remarkably small. Dr. A. W. Livingston."

Special this week—85c Nylco chocolates for 65c at Coppedge Drug Company's.

We now have for sale plenty of good brick. Price $7.50 per thousand, merchantable lot. McKnight Bros. 7

The Coppedge Drug Company has secured the services of Mr. W. M. Luder of Jackson as their prescriptionist. Mr. Luder has been in business for himself in Jackson for the past twelve years and is thoroughly familiar with the drug business, especially in prescription work.

The Hotchkiss & Lyle Co. will have its annual White Sale the last week in January, beginning on the 25th. In addition they will have their semi-annual Clearance Sale of all Winter Goods. On Thursday, the 27th, they will have their regular mark down sale of women's fine shoes, and on Saturday, the 29th they have their regular $10.00 sale of Men's Suits.

J. M. Currie, aged about 80 years, died at his home in Memphis Sunday morning, January 9, 1916, at 7 o'clock. Remains were brought to Brownsville Monday morning and interred in the Currie family burial ground west of town. Services conducted by Rev. C. V. Crabbe. He is survived by his wife and one son, and by two sisters, Mrs. Allie Dickinson and Miss Bettie Currie, and a brother, T. R. Currie, all of this city.

Mrs. Emma Johnson, mother of Mrs. J. D. Curtis and Mr. Rogers died Tuesday evening, January 11, at 6 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Curtis on College street after about ten days illness of pneumonia. Services were held at the residence Wednesday at 1:30 o'clock p. m., conducted by Rev. A. C. Bell, assisted by Dr. R. H. Mahon. Interment in Rose Hill cemetery at Humboldt at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. John C. Walker died at her home on Park avenue on Friday afternoon, January 7, 1916, at 1:30 o'clock, aged 72 years, 8 months. Funeral services were held at the residence Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. R. J. Russell, assisted by Rev. A. C. Bell. Interment at Oakwood cemetery. Mrs. Walker was a consistent member of the Methodist church and was a woman of high ideals and splendid Christian character. All who knew her loved her. She leaves to mourn her death her husband, Mr. John C. Walker, and five children, Misses Minnie and Venie Walker, John R. Lonnie and George Walker, and a nephew, Walter Walker, whom she loved as a son. The States-Graphic joins the many friends in extending to these bereaved ones deepest sympathy in their hours of sadness.

T. A. Freeman recently purchased from Geo. Chamberlain the stumpage on about six hundred acres of land in Hatchie bottom known as the Hasler and Blakemore land. This is considered a very fine tract of stumpage. It is estimated to cut about two million feet of merchantable timber, principally red and white oak, and some hickory. Consideration $5,000.

We Must Maintain Roads.

In many a county in the south the condition of the roads is the same as those which the editor of the Clinton Democrat describes as existing in his county. He says:
"We can't survive the impression that we have wasted a lot of money; that we have built a lot of roads that have gone back to their former condition, from neglect; that we have burdened our posterity with a debt that has proved to be rather a bad investment. We have burdened our children with bonds that will be mighty hard to pay, and we will have to answer for a great deal, if for their $10,000 we leave them a legacy of mudholes, a heritage of sand and water. One of the main defects in our present program, we think, is the fact that we are spending all of our money on construction and are not taking proper thought for the maintenance of roads."

Hillville News.

New Year's gift, everybody.
How strong is your New Year's resolution?

Though the weather was severe our Christmas tree at old Do-Me-Good school house was fine. Most every child in the entire neighborhood was remembered. That's the beauty and good of giving—make someone happy.

Mr. Earl Powell and Miss Gertrude Moore were quietly married on December 25, Rev. Jas. H. Oakley officiating. A lovely supper was served at the groom's home on the North Side. Mr. and Mrs. Powell are at home to their friends at the J. A. Powell home. Best wishes for a long, happy and prosperous life.

Rev. Jas. H. Oakley spent Christmas night with S. B. Moore's family.

Miss Anna Lewis of Mercer spent the holidays with her brother, J. A. Lewis on the North Side, returning home Thursday.

Miss Susie McGee spent several days in Jackson last week, the guest of W. E. McGee and family.

Mr. H. H. Hill of Hillville and Mrs. McDowell of Near Cedar Chapel were married last week, returning home from their bridal tour a few days later. They are at home to their friends on South Main street.

Miss Robbie Lewis served luncheon to a few special friends on Christmas day. An attractive feature of the occasion was the rabbit hunt the young people took in the afternoon. They said it was rabbits; we have an idea it was a "deer" hunt.

Ellis Moore of Whiteville spent Christmas with his mother and father.

Mrs. J. A. Bentes is up again after a serious illness of several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Mari Powell visited friends north of Hatchie last week, returning home Saturday.

J. F. Hill will move to the Thomas Freels farm on Richland creek in a few days.

Eug. S. E. McGee is killing some fine ducks the last few days.

Misses Mattie and Loula Powell have returned from Cordova, having been under quarantine in that town for nearly two months. They report their sister, Mrs. Goodloe, much improved.

Washington Edmonds, who had been in bad health for some time, died last week and was buried at the Harmony cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wilkes have moved into their new home on the North Side, seemingly well pleased with their surroundings.

Bro. Jordan gave us a splendid sermon Sunday afternoon.

Herbert Richardson visited on the North Side Saturday of last week.

A unique marriage was that of Sunday afternoon, when Mr. Carey Walden and Miss Allie Hill were united in holy wedlock near the old Do-Me-Good church. Bro. Jordan officiating. After church services the bride and groom motored to the beautiful residence of Mr. J. A. Lewis, where supper was served, covers being laid for ten. Congratulations had best wishes for these two of our most popular young people.

SUBSCRIBER.

Why People Loved Him So.

His past, while not an open book, had bitter lessons taught; the one diploma that he took in suffering was wrought; in Life's exacting school he'd learned how weak a man can be; he understood the hearts that yearn for love and sympathy; no pious saint himself, he knew the sorrow and the woe of others—he had suffered, too,—and Ah! he loved him so.

He freely gave, not asking why; no lecture throwing in; into no details would he pry; no sermon would begin; he sought no evils to correct, he gave because it pleased; he injured no one's self respect—enough, that want was eased. His was the modest, simple creed, "Let not your right hand know." We knew him as a friend in need, and Ah! we loved him so.

Of his own failings conscious, he no judgment sought to give; he strove, unlike the Pharisee, to live, and to let live; unlike those "holier than thou," who sheltered lives have led, his gentleness would not allow a harsh word to be said, not without sin, he understood over the stone to throw; his past was not an open book—but, Ah! we loved him so.

The Limit in Prohibition.

Oregon has a new law intended to make prohibition of the liquor traffic stronger than a steel-and-concrete trench defended by gatling guns, says the Abilene, Kansas, Chronicle. If liquor is imported from another state woe to the man who dares drink it! He is obliged on receiving the liquor to sign an affidavit that it is to be used only for sacramental purposes. An Eastern anti-saloon league man, commenting on this situation, says: "Please take note that the slips bearing the signed oaths of liquor receivers must be filed with the county court clerk and that he must treat them as public records, allowing access to them at any time. Now, what anti-salooners propose to do is to keep consulting these records, follow them up and see what each receiver of liquor has done with it—it will not be hard to find out whether he has used it for sacramental purposes—and, in case he has violated his oath by drinking the liquor as a beverage, prosecute him for perjury to the limit of the law and let him rot for a few years in jail. Do you think that will hold them?" In contrast with this statement by Mr. Trout, comes the Benton County (Ore.) Courier, which claims that the prohibition law of that state contains a little joker. It seems that each family has been limited to 24 gallons of beer and 2 gallons of whiskey per month. "The family could get along with this much water," says the Courier, "if it would use the beer to bathe in."

A Neglected Cold

is often followed by pneumonia. Before it is too late take Laxative Quinine Tablets. Gives prompt relief in cases of Coughs, Colds, La Grippe and Headache. Price 25c.

Down With Mince Pie.

The hand of the reformer has reached out and desecrated the mince pie. Excess officials of Colorado view with horror the danger of intoxication which they claim rests within the mince pie, and have decreed that in future all traces of brandy shall be omitted from that delectable dessert. We have no quarrel with the excess officials of Colorado, but we ask if this is not carrying the enforcement of the prohibitory law too far? Making a martyr of the mince pie is striking pretty close to home. It would give the civil authorities, power, for instance, to enter the home, sample the pie before the family had a chance at it, and if they found it especially delightful, to condemn it and carry it away with them to eat it quietly and happily at home when they reached a secluded spot. The authorities could not be blamed for this, exactly, because we have all seen mince pies which no human could resist. It's the family that has the kick coming. The wise housewife knows that it is not necessary to put brandy into mince pie to make it appealing to the palate. Others believe that the brandy gives it a tang which it could never attain without the use of alcohol. One famous cook explained the difference between mince pie with brandy and that without was that the latter was "hash." Be that as it may, anybody will tell you—if he happens to know—that the alcohol which gets into mince pie, gets out again in the process of cooking. Immediately the legal question will arise in Colorado. "When is a pie a pie?" In all probability the courts will be called upon to determine whether a pie is a pie before it is cooked or after it is cooked. If the latter is the case, the pie-maker can only be charged with a violation of the prohibition law when the pie inspector ends before the pie goes into the oven. This, of course, makes it extremely difficult for the inspector.

Death Lurks in a Weak Heart

so on first symptoms use "Renovine" and be cured. Delay and pay the awful penalty. "Renovine" is the heart's remedy. Price $1.00 and 50c.

Youth's Vanished Joys.

We hear it asked, "What has become of old-time joys?" Of old-time joys, none. Of mammy's beaten biscuits with The flavor all their own; But—would they taste as good again if they were served tonight? Would memory make up, perchance, For faded appetite? That chicken Maryland we knew In golden bygone days Seems to have lost its flavor now. The pies that mother used to make, So flaky and so light, Go well in verse—but would they tempt The jaded appetite?

And thus in reminiscent vein, One might ask "What's become?" Of this and that and 'other thing—Of doughnuts—and then some; They live but in the memory As visions of delight. We couldn't eat them now because We lack the appetite.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, it has a tendency to close, and when it is closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; unless out of the ear are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

WEAK, SORE LUNGS

Restored To Health By Vinol
Camden, N. J.—"I had a deep seated cough, was run-down, and my lungs were weak and sore. I had tried everything suggested without help. One evening I read about Vinol and decided to try it. Soon I noticed an improvement. I kept on taking it and today I am a well man. The soreness is all gone from my lungs. I do not have any cough and have gained fifteen pounds."
